Asbury College is a United Methodist Church-related school located on the island town of Anda, the mother island of the famous Hundred Islands off the coast of Lingayen Gulf, just north of Manila, Philippines. It is the only higher learning institution on the island offering affordable college education as well as elementary and high school courses.

Please feel free to sign our Guestbook and leave your marks. If you are an alumni, we encourage you to visit the Alumni section for important announcement.

If you wish to support any of the school's projects, scholarship and endowment programs, please click on the Financial Support link. Your generous contribution is greatly appreciated. May God richly bless you in return.
